Players decide who will be the question master (QM) for the first round.

The remaining players will be the artists.

The QM picks up the same number of title cards as artists.

2

The QM must choose a category and announce it to the artists. Then, on the back of the title cards, the QM writes an "X" on one card and a title based on the category on the remaining cards.

Category examples: Animals, Vehicles, Fruits, etc..

3

The QM shuffles the title cards and places one in front of each artist. Each artist turns over their card but shouldn't reveal the subject. The person who turns over the "X" is the fake artist.

The QM should remember the color of the card with the "X".

4

Artists then select a color marker. The question master decides who makes the first mark. Moving clockwise each artist makes a mark to create the masterpiece. This continues for two rounds.

5

After the 2nd round, the QM will count down from 3. The artists must then point to who they believe is the fake artist .
